Dear Constituent

As you may know, I have announced my intention of standing for the Constituency of Middle in the House of Keys General Election on Thursday 29 September 2011. During the coming months I hope to demonstrate to you that I am a person you could rely on to represent our Constituency and to deal, professionally, with issues affecting our Island at both local and national level.

I am not affiliated to any party but will work with groups or individuals supporting or proposing anything which would benefit Middle or the Isle of Man. I believe, strongly, it is a politician's duty to always represent the views of his constituents but many forget that to do this properly they need to listen. To this end, I have already started to attend meetings with local organisations and intend to call at your homes to introduce myself and listen to your concerns.

Although I have my own thoughts as to what I should include, my manifesto will not be finalised until after I have completed a large number of home visits. This is so I can satisfy myself that I am taking your views into consideration.

It would be an honour and privilege to be your Member of the House of Keys and although I would be foolish to promise I will achieve everything I set out to do, I will try my utmost to ensure Middle has effective representation. As someone with a proven track record in business, I will attempt to stop the waste of Government money which is taking place at a time when the Island faces many financial, and other, challenges.

Middle is one of the largest single constituencies but I pledge to represent the interests of Braddan and Marown equally. I look forward to meeting you, and listening to your views, but – in the meantime – if you wish to discuss any particular issue please call me or e-mail hquayle@manx.net

I can assure you that a vote for Howard Quayle on September 29th will not be a wasted one. Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Yours faithfully
