THE CURIOUS CASE OF 'SWIFT NICK' NEVISON?

It has recently come to the attention of the local constabulary in Newark on Trent, that the Town Mayor has been robbed in broad daylight by a polite young fellow on a horse!

The heist appears remarkably similar to those carried out by old 'Swift Nick Nevison' a highwayman active in the area in the 17th Century. The Mayor's chain of office and other associated valuables have been seized and the police fear a spate of copy-cat robberies across the historic market town over the coming weeks.

The old Talbot Inn has been thoroughly searched, a known hiding place of old Swift Nick and his gang, but no trace could be found!

Special agents have been called in to assist with the capture of the criminal, one they believe must be related to Swift Nick Nevison as surely he can't have returned from the dead.....could he?

Join us to hunt for old Swift Nick and become a special agent on either Saturday 16th or Sunday 17th December 2017 from 10:00

Tickets cost £10 per adult with children (under 16 going FREE)

Under 16 to be accompanied by at least one fee paying adult*

Special agents can start the hunt any when between 10:00 and 11:00 on either day with a finish time of 16:00. We anticipate a play time of 2-3 hours
