

Corrine (Facebook)

Something that 99.7 helps me with. I can go through my days in worship and in thanks. The lyrics, stories, interviews, commentary, and prayers are edifying...they breathe life...they keep my eyes on God and what He wants of my blip of time here. Thank you all so much for being a refuge for your brothers & sisters in Christ in this area. And, of course, for being light & salt to everyone.

Richard (Facebook)

Thank you for The Q 99.7. Its where I found the Christmas Spirit last year, which had been lost for several years. I also renewed my relationship with Jesus, wanted to say thanks for a life renewed

Erin from Westfield

I first accepted Jesus when I was five and simply believed I was a Christian because I went to Church and said I did. When I turned eleven I felt something was still missing I didn't know what it was I was so confused. I didn't think God could love me and I felt ugly and sinful. I spent my time thinking suicidal thoughts and feeling God could never care about me. Then one evening, I felt the urge to pray. I cried out to God and asked him what he wanted me to do. At that moment the song "I Will Follow" by Chris Tomlin played on the radio. I knew this was the answer to my prayer and I prayed for salvation. I felt God change my life that evening and know he's never left my side since.

Hi, My name is Marylin. About two weeks ago I got in my car and turned on the station and Laura Story's song Blessings came on. I'm not sure what it was that made me start crying. I don't think I've ever cried the way I did in my car that morning. My husband and I have been going through a rough time trying to keep up with the mortgage that recently had gone up and not having health insurance The song came on and I realized the reason I was crying was because maybe everything we've been going through is a blessing in disguise, and all this time me praying and asking the Lord to help, but still kind of doubting him was the reason for my breakdown. It was almost as the Lord was talking to me through this song letting me know it's going to be ok, you're going to get through this. I cried because I thought how could I doubt him when in fact he's always found a way for my family and I. It's been two weeks and since then my relationship with the Lord is much stronger, I look to him for strength when I feeling down and overwhelmed and instantly I feel better. Now when I hear that song I smile and thank the Lord for all that I am going through because in the end I'm here because of him and I am blessed to know I have him in my life and know that with him all is possible only when you have faith and believe that he will be there for me.

From Darren:

I thought that you should know that your station has touched my heart and brought me back to God. One day I was riding in my car along I-90 on the way to a doctor's visit. I have a long commute, from Westborough to Enfield, and radio stations fade in and out. I was channel surfing and wondering why God has put such hardships in my life. Finances are difficult, I'm losing my condo, and many more things had driven me down. I had stopped going to church, even though I was a regular choir member. And as I was asking this question, I found your station. And you were playing "Blessings" by Laura Story. Fortunately, I was coming upon a rest stop, because that song answered the question I had just asked. I pulled in and listened to the whole song with tears streaming down my face. And I felt something change in me. That night I posted a video of that song on my facebook page. And I started going to church again.

A few weeks later, I was returning from picking up Chinese take-out, and it happened again. I had started listening to your station when it would come in for me, and "East to West" by Casting Crowns came on. I had to slow down quite a bit because I was so moved. When I got home I stayed in the car until it was over. Again, there were tears. I posted that video that night as well.

Thank you for all that you do. I'm praying for you, and praying that at least one other person who is where I was can find you and be brought home. You've drawn in at least one prodigal so far.

Denise from Feeding Hills

I was dying in my soul and I just didn't know. You showed me a way back to my home. One I'd never really known. Thank you, the "Q" For all you do. You saved me and my family too.

Christian from Feeding Hills

The songs you play get me get through every single day with a better attitude and a better conviction. Without the Q 99.7 in my life, I would be heading down a very bad road. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all the work that you do in this area and in my life.

Ronnie from Springfield, Ma - Facebook

As a result of circumstances that are beyond my control, (i.e. noisy neighbors) I have had to use headphones late at night. Your station has the most inspirational and upbeat Christian music, I have ever heard. Your station is a steady comfort to me on those nights that I find it hard to sleep, as well finding that it strengthens my faith.

Angie from Holyoke

I was going through sooo much in my life. I felt so alone and wanted to give up in everything. Then at night I was praying to God to help me cause I couldn't take it anymore. And the song Not Alone by Family Force Five came on the radio. And that song lifted up my spirit and I cried and felt Gods arms rapping around me. I knew then that I'm truly not alone. EVER. Thank you guys for all you do. Keep being great blessing to people's lives. I love you guys God bless u all!!

Breanna from Ludlow

I have really bad anxiety sometimes, and lately there have been a lot of little things stressing me out. As soon as I turn on The Q 99.7 it instantly calms me down. I'm so thankful for this radio station and everyone involved in it!

Dee from Agawam

I have had moments as a business owner when I thought I should give up, but my faith in my Father just keeps me moving forward. This is what he wants for me, and I need to pick myself up and move on. Recently I was going through one of those moments, and flipped on the car radio. I heard the announcer say "Give it to God" so I did. I listened to the song (which I LOVE) My God's Alive and felt so much better. I gave it to God, and he is making my crooked path straight! Thank you! :)

Diana from Westfield

In the midst of this hectic world when I get in my van the radio is set to 99.7 and I immediately get centered. I like that.

Donna from Enfield, Ct

There are so many times a certain song comes on and it is the right song at the right time, words of encouragement, songs to get you thru the moments. Some reinforcements of God's Great Love and faithfulness

Emily from Feeding Hills

"All I know is I'm not home yet" is a phrase that I find myself singing in difficult times and also in the times when I'm just praising God! I love the song very much and I know that it was definitely inspired by God and is used to bring us closer to Him.

Katy from Westfield

I have really been enjoying the drive-thru difference! I have given out 4 of your drive thru difference notes at local coffee establishments on my way to work - and it has been an amazing experience. Since I wasn't able to witness the outcome, I have embraced the mystery- it's another way to experience blind faith. It has gotten me out of my comfort zone, and it's helped me not to dwell on my challenges. Each time, I have said a prayer and asked God to bless the person that I was paying for, and it definitely set a positive tone to my day. Thanks for creating "kindness in action"!

Matthew from Springfield

A few weeks ago I was going through a hard time in my life. I tough Break up with my girlfriend. But it was for the best, and the song Before the Morning by Josh Wilson really spoke to me. I listen To the Q 99.7 a lot, but one day i just had it on, and every song was just speaking into me, and that song especially. I've been learning to seek God more, and put my trust in him.

Mike from Feeding Hills

It is a common occurrence that a song will come on that speaks into a challenge I am facing just at the moment when I needed to hear it. God's timing is perfect...

Tabitha from Springfield

When I drive I always have the Q 99.7 on the radio. Recently I was in the car and the radio was broken for 2 days. I didn't realize until that moment how much the Q 99.7 helps me. It calms me, allows me to worship and praise God in the car, and generally improves my mood.

Tom from West Springfield

The Q 99.7 is helping get me through my 6 month long deployment to the Middle East. Thank you!!